A contract with death

Bread from the Potter

A house built on sand cannot last. It lacks a strong foundation. Children, what is your faith built on, if your faith is in someone else or in your possessions or in your position then you will fail, for these things that I have mentioned are temporal, they are here one moment and gone the next. Children build your house on a solid foundation something that cannot be blown away by the wind or washed away by the waves of the sea. Surely by now you are aware that material things are only to be used as needed for life and ministry but your trust and faith should be on the things of heaven. This life that you live here on earth is but a whisper in the wind, even if you live to be 120 years old the materials of the world will probably outlast you and furthermore they cannot be transported into your next life, they are limited to the physical realm. It is sad to see how some people still have the same mentality as the Pharaoh's of old, thinking that they can carry what they possess into the next world or even more laughable thinking that they can buy their way into heaven. Oh foolish men you can neither buy your way into heaven nor buy your way out of hell, ask the rich man in the story the rich man and Lazarus, all of his wealth could not buy him his freedom, his soul was bound in hell for all eternity and he is still there to this day. Children, do not be deceived, in particular teenagers and young adults, do not be deceived by the movie stars and the music moguls of this world, they are trying to draw you in, to urge you to sell your soul to Satan for money and fame but they never tell you the whole story. They never tell you that their souls are bound for eternity; they are already slaves to Satan. Even though they have not yet died physically they are dead spiritually, a permanent death, they have signed a contract with hell, one that they cannot break, they are prisoners, slaves who will never gain their freedom. The only thing they live for now is enjoying their fame and fortune for indeed Satan will fulfill his end of the deal, he will grant them fame and fortune for the price of their eternal soul. Fools, did it ever occur to you that your soul is worth more than anything Satan can give you? Do you not understand that he is the one getting the better end of the deal? This is simple common sense, the deal always favors the one who holds the gold, and all the rules that govern the deal are written in such a way as to protect the interests of the one who holds the silver and the gold. You do not need to be a genius to understand that any contract you enter into with Satan always results in him getting the best part of the deal but these entertainers are too blinded by greed and pride that they willingly give that which is priceless for that which perishes. Children, I am saying this to warn those who are being pulled in once again by pride and greed. I am warning teenagers and young adults who are seeking fame and fortune at any cost. Remember, the elite and the entertainers are slaves; you are free as long as you do not sign away your soul to Satan. It is better to be poor and free than to be rich beyond your wildest dreams yet be bound by the chains of hell itself. Consider what I have said, your eternal soul depends on it. I have laid down all the cards, I have hidden nothing from you, now use the will that I freely gave you and simple common sense and make the right choice, your life is on a set of scales, which way shall the scale tip, you choose. Selah.
