Actions and consequences

Children your actions have consequences both good and bad. There is no escaping them. Even what is done in secret has consequences, no one else may know about it but you do and you will have to live with those consequences. There are some things that you do only once in your life and the consequences are so enormous that they scar you for the rest of your life. Some bad choices are made out of ignorance or immaturity yet still the consequences are just as real as if your intentions were planned or wicked from the very beginning. Children I am your God but if you choose to live in disobedience and rebellion believe me you will have to suffer and live with the consequences of the choices you have made. Yes if you repent I will forgive you but the consequences will still touch your life. It is wisdom to listen to wise counsel and to avoid going down the wrong path. It is unwise to be warned and to ignore that warning because this can cost you a lifetime of heartache. Many have made the wrong choice just for the first time and have had a lifetime of heartbreak to follow. Children, age does not nullify the consequences of your choices and your actions. You can make a grave mistake as a teenager or as a 60 year old and in both cases you will have to live with the consequences of your actions. I love you my children this is why I sent my Holy Spirit to lead you down the path of righteousness, to warn you about the pitfalls the enemy has set along your path. Without fail the Holy Spirit warns you ahead of time of the consequences that will result if you go down a particular path. Very few listen to Him, a majority of my children do not and the result is always regrettable. I am God I am a fair judge. I have not left the world without a defense for to those who do not have my Holy Spirit I have given to all a conscience. Furthermore, I myself speak warnings to those who are willing to listen whether they are my children or not therefore none has an excuse for failing to make the right choice. Your own flesh, your own lust, your own greed leads you to make the wrong choice and the natural and spiritual law is that every action has a consequence; every choice has a consequence either bad or good. Just because you are my children does not mean that you are exempt from this law, the wages of sin is death and there is a price to pay for disobedience and rebellion. Children, I have made a way out of every temptation. My word clearly says that there is no temptation that a man faces that is not common to man and not only this but I will not allow you to be tempted beyond your capability to resist. Additionally, with every temptation there is always an open door of escape but you must choose to walk through that door. Yes children there is no temptation or sin that is new under the sun, as far as evil goes it has been this way before and you as my children have the power to overcome any temptation. Therefore do not act as if this is only happening to you or as if you are alone in this. I am here to help you but you must be willing to submit to my Spirit. My word says submit yourselves to God resist the devil and he will flee from you. It starts with submission to my Spirit for it is He who gives you the power to overcome your enemy Satan. I am with you children you have no excuse for continuing to live in sin. Make a choice today that you may be free from the sin that so easily besets you. I love you.

Jesus, Amen.
