Do not dwell in darkness

Children torment should not be a part of your life. I have given you abundant life, peace and liberty. Why do you remain tormented in your souls? Torment is not from me it is from Satan and he will use it on whoever allows him. My children are filled with my Holy Spirit and He is greater than anything or anyone you will ever face. Why should the strong one indwell you yet you allow yourself to be tormented by the weak one? For who can stand in my presence? Do not be deceived children; do not get entrapped in a prison of torment in your mind or in your body. I have the keys to release you from this prison. The door is unlocked but you have been deceived so well, you have been locked up for so long that even though the door is unlocked you refuse to walk through it, you are still content to remain in your cell of confusion and torment. Children did I spill blood for nothing? Did I bear all your sins, pain and torment for nothing? Would you put me back on the cross to complete your salvation? I tell you truly I will not return to the cross. I went that way only once and I completed my duty, I left nothing half done or unfinished, it is finished; it is done once and for all. If you choose to walk in bondage to this world that is not my failure but yours. My blood is more than sufficient to take away all your sin and to set you free from all evil, therefore, if you are still walking in defeat it is a choice that you have made either consciously or because you have been deceived into thinking that you have to remain a prisoner to darkness. Satan is a liar and the father of lies he came but to kill, steal and destroy. He will use any and all tactics to steal your soul even to the point of appearing as an angel of light and he has done so and is doing so over and over. Cults and religious denominations have been created because of this kind of deception. There are billions who have been deceived through false religions because Satan appeared as an angel of light and deceived them. Children this is not a game this is a battle for the souls of men and many are being deceived and are losing their souls. This is a fact. I am the Father of light and there is no darkness in me whatsoever. I do not dabble in evil, my angels do not have a trace of evil in them, my kingdom is one of light, truth, holiness and love. If ever an angel appears to you claiming to be from me do not accept him or anything he says without first testing the spirit to see if it is from me. One who is from me will confess me as God and Lord, born of a virgin, lived among men, was dead, was resurrected and seated on the right hand of God the Father. One who does not give this confession is not from me, one who does not name my name is not from me, one who does not proclaim me as God the only true God is not from me. Do not be deceived for many spirits have been released into the world to deceive the ignorant and by ignorant I mean those who are not well acquainted with my word and what is in it. These spirits are both the spirits of men as in false prophets and evil spirits descending from the heavenlies for we are not ignorant of their existence or of their devices. Children beware; do not be made slaves when I have already made you free. You are mine, you belong to none other, you do not bow to another, you do not honor another and you do not confess another. I am your God, I am one, I am only and apart from me there is no savior.

Jesus, Amen.
