Seed and fruit

My children learn to be true to my heart. The laws I have given you in my word are for your own protection. I am not seeking to deny you pleasure I am seeking to keep your soul out of hell. Fleshly pleasure will lead you straight to hell. Instead find pleasure in my word and keep my commands and statutes. In them you will find joy and fulfillment. Yes you must crucify your flesh in the process because the flesh is an enemy of mine, we are polar opposites and we will never agree. Where the flesh is king my Spirit is absent or greatly diminished not diminished in power but in presence but where my Spirit rules the flesh is subdued. My children you will find what is pleasing to your soul and spirit if you remain in me. I have given you life abundantly that you may find pleasure in every good thing and remember every good thing comes from my Father in heaven. Sin, evil and the flesh have nothing good in them and though Satan may appear as an angel of light and his servants as ministers of righteousness they are all but imitations and to those who have discernment their evil will be revealed. When I created all things and in particular all the things that have life in them my command is that they should bear fruit after their own kind. Apart from the tampering of demons and demented humans all things that have life in them do bear fruit after their own kind. In the same way Satan and his evil messengers bear fruit of one kind only, evil. They may disguise it as good, paint it so it looks bright and healthy but eventually their true nature will show through. To those with wisdom and discernment the dark fruit will be evident. Therefore children I am holding you responsible to study the fruit of the ministries you are in. Search my word become familiar with it so that you may gain wisdom and discernment and be able to distinguish between good fruit and bad fruit. In the times when you are unsure come to me and ask I will not lead you astray. I will reveal to you what you need to know. Most of my children have fallen into deception because they are ignorant of my word. Study my word, read it, meditate on it, know what you believe in and be ready to justify your belief in me, to prove your faith to those who ask and equip those who are needy. Do not be lazy when it comes to the reading of my word. As you read I will open up the scriptures and bring understanding to your physical mind. You will also begin to mature in the knowledge of my word. Children just like you have to study hard in school in order to pass your exams you must put in as much effort in the study of my word. Those who do so will be rewarded with much understanding and deeper revelations. You are my ambassadors, my witnesses in this dark world. Fulfill the duties of your ambassadorship faithfully.

Ever true and faithful,

Jesus, Amen.
